Note: We have used the data made publicly available by ADR and applied TCPD categories for the purpose of analyses.

Using data made publicly available by the Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR), and applying some of our own modifications, Lok Dhaba has been updated with data from past elections on the education and profession of political candidates.

CHECK IT OUT AT:
LOKDHABHA.ASHOKA.EDU.IN

Drawing on the affidavit data released by the Association for Democratic Reforms (ADR), and applying our own categorization to the self-reported education and profession of winners to the Lok Sabha and Vidhan Sabha, check out the new visualizations on Lok Dhaba and our codebook for details about the categorization.

Turncoats in Uttarakhand

Each box represents a contestant in the 2017 Uttarakhand State polls. Squares indicate winners, and circles depict losers. All listed contestants were part of other parties before jumping ship in 2017. The colour of the box shows the previous party of the contestant. For instance, the BJP had 13 such candidates, 9 of them from Congress. The Congress had eight such candidates, 6 of them from the BJP
